

When it set the current 5wpm CW requirements for advanced amateur radio licenses, the commission stated that ITU requirements kept them from removing code requirements entirely. The ITU has recently removed this provision for the amatuer spectrum, and there is no reason for the commission not to follow. I support the petition to remove the code requirement from the General and Extra amateur license.